Biographical Sketch of Uriah Hill, Jr.

Uriah Hill, Jr., was born August 13, 1817, near Red Mills, Town of Carmel, Putnam County, New York. He is the son of Uriah Hill, grandson of Noah Hill, great-grandson of William Hill, all of the town of Carmel, and great-great-grandson of Anthony Hill, a native of England, who came to America from Holland, about 1720; and, after remaining awhile in New York City, settled at Fox Meadows, now Scarsdale, Westchester County, N. Y. His mother was Anna Dean, daughter of Richard Dean, of Red Mills, and granddaughter of Richard Dean, an American soldier who, according to family tradition, was killed at the storming of Stony Point, in the War of the Revolution. Mr. Hill's early education was at the common schools in his native town, and in his father's home, his father being a school teacher for over half a century in the district schools of Putnam County. At the age of sixteen he left home and became a clerk in the country store of John Strang & Co., Jefferson Valley, Westchester County, N. Y., where he remained three years, when in April, 1837, he removed to Peekskill, N. Y., and entered the employ of C. A. G. and M. Depew, merchants. He remained with them five years and then engaged in the foundry and stove business with his father-in-law, Reuben R. Finch, as the head of the sales department in New York City. Owing to impaired health, in 1853, he retired from the stove trade and removed to Monroe County, N. Y., and engaged in farming, remaining until 1855, when he returned to Peekskill and resumed his connection with the foundry business with Reuben R. Finch and Reuben R. Finch, Jr., under the firm name of R. R. Finch & Company. The business was continued under that title and that of R. R. Finch's Sons, after the retirement of R. R. Finch, Sr., until 1867, when it was incorporated by Mr. Hill, Reuben R. Finch, Jr., and Nathan Finch, as the Union Stove Works. Mr. Hill was elected president and has ever since continued as such.

During the whole of his life, Mr. Hill has been connected with the church of his fathers, the Presbyterian; in 1858 he was received into full membership; in 1860 he was elected ruling elder, and for many years he was superintendent of the First Presbyterian Sunday School of Peekskill. His active church work covers a period of over a half century, and during the whole of that time he has been a regular attendant upon divine services. In politics he has always been a Democrat, although during the War of the Rebellion, believing in the active prosecution of the war to preserve the Union, he voted the Republican national and state ticket. He also voted twice for Mr. McKinley, because of the free silver plank in the Democratic platform.

At the organization of the Peekskill Savings Bank, in 1857, he became one of its first trustees, and he has continued ever since as such, and is now the only one of the first board in office. At the death of Oscar V. Crane, he succeeded him as vice-president, and in 1881 was elected president, which position he still holds.

He was one of the organizers of the National Association of Stove Manufacturers, in which he has held the offices of member of the board of managers, vice-president and treasurer.

At the age of eighteen he received from Governor Marcy a commission as lieutenant in the 61st Regiment, New York State militia. At the outbreak of the War of the Rebellion, he was beyond the age limits for military service, but furnished a substitute to battle for the Union.

For nearly forty years he has been a trustee of the Peekskill Military Academy. He has always taken a deep interest in educational matters, and especially in the public schools of Peekskill; always favoring the most liberal appropriations for them.

Among the political offices held by him, are those of trustee and president of the Village of Peekskill, town auditor, and in 1865-6-7, supervisor of the Town of Cortlandt.

April 10, 1842, he was married, by Rev. William Marshall, to Alethea, daughter of Reuben R. and Deborah (Brush) Finch, of Peekskill. He has two children now living, Edward F. Hill and Sarah V. Hill, both of Peekskill.

HILL FAMILY.

Anthony Hill, of English descent, was born in Holland, and came from there to America about 1720. He settled in New York City, became a freeholder and removed to Fox Meadows, now a part of Scarsdale, Westchester County, N. Y. April 7, 1726, he, with others, conveyed to Thomas Thong a lot in the north ward of the City of New York. In the deed he is described as of Fox Meadows. As early as 1726 he became a freeholder at Fox Meadows.

January 8, 1727, he purchased from Samuel Drake, of Fox Meadows, "a tract or parcel of land lying, being situate in ye County of Westchester near ye head of Hutchinson River, containing twenty-one acres, bounded as followeth, beginning on ye southwest corner of Samuel Drake's land, thence running northwesterly by ye land of Anthony Hills to Brunks River, thence along said river easterly twenty-one rods to a white oak stake with stones around it, thence running southeasterly a straight line through ye land of said Samuel Drake's until ye southeast corner bounds bears in a line twenty-one rods from ye first mentioned bounds, and from thence running westerly along ye White Plains road to ye first mentioned bounds twenty one rods, and ye bounds on ye southeast corner is a small white oak saplin marked, and further ye first bounds herein mentioned is ye first bounds of ye land herein sold to Anthony Hill." (Liber F. 352 Westchester County Deeds, March 24, 1730.) About 1741, while living at Fox Meadows, he purchased from the Indians some lands near what afterwards became known as Red Mills, Dutchess County, and now known as Mahopac Falls, in the town of Carmel, Putnam County, N. Y. In 1749 Anthony Hill bought and sold lands at Brown's Point, now a part of the town of Harrison, Westchester County, N. Y. Two of the sons of Anthony Hill, William and Uriah, removed to the lands purchased by their father of the Indians. About 1726 Anthony married Mary Ward. He died intestate, at Fox Meadows, in the winter of 1759-60. February 12, 1760, letters of administration were issued by James De Lancey, Lieutenant Governor of the Province of New York, to Mary Hill, widow of Anthony Hill, farmer, late of the County of Westchester, deceased, (N. Y. Admr. 1760, page 96). After the death of her husband Mrs. Hill removed to Red Mills, where she made her home with her son William, dying at the age of 93 years.

2. William Hill<sup>2</sup>, son of Anthony<sup>1</sup> and Mary (Ward) Hill, was born at Fox Meadows, N. Y., 1726, and died at Red Mills, N. Y., August, 1796. About 1741 he settled at Red Mills, on lands purchased by his father of the Indians. He brought with him from Fox Meadows a cow. One day it strayed away and while looking for it in the evening, he was attacked by a pack of wolves, and obliged to seek refuge in a tree, where he remained all night. Early the next morning, while returning by a circuitous route to his log cabin, he came to the log cabin of George Hughson, the first white settler of that part of the country. The Hughson cabin was on the ridge north of Lake Mahopac.

Mr. Hill was a farmer and large land owner. September 25, 1763, he purchased farm No. 36, in Lot No. 5, containing 245 acres, of Colonel Roger and Mary (Philipse) Morris. This was the first tract of land sold in Putnam (then part of Dutchess) County by the Philipse family, the original patentees. This farm was subsequently divided by Mr. Hill among his four sons. The house in which he lived was torn down in 1843. It stood a little north of the Hill family burying ground.

In colonial days he was a lieutenant in the local militia and afterwards a captain.

He married Bethiah, daughter of Abraham Smith, of what is now known as Putnam Valley, Putnam County, N. Y. She was born in 1738, and died at Red Mills in August, 1798. Both are buried in the Hill family burying ground, at Red Mills, N. Y. The will of Mr. Hill, dated August 1, 1796, proved February 3, 1797, recorded in Dutchess County Surrogate's office in Liber B, of Wills, page 37, describes himself as "William Hill, Sr., of the town of Carmel, Dutchess County, yeoman." By it he gave his wife sixty pounds, his negro man Mink and the use of one quarter of his homestead farm. He mentions in his will his sons Noah, William, <sup>Solomon,</sup> Cornelius and Abraham, and his daughters Phebe Heroy, Mary Rhodes, Chloe Crane and Jane Lounsbury. The witnesses to will were Jonathan Stokum and Jonathan Whiting, both of whom were farmers and lived near Red Mills. The latter died January 14, 1797.

20. Abraham<sup>3</sup>, born July 24, 1774; died at Red Mills, March 25, 1813.

3. Uriah Hill<sup>2</sup>, son of Anthony<sup>1</sup> and Mary (Ward) Hill, was a fur trader. In 1764 lived at White Plains, N. Y., where he was a freeholder. He also lived at one time in the southern part of Dutchess County. April 23, 1750, he purchased from Philip Earle forty-two acres of land near New Barbadoes (Hackensack), Bergen County, New Jersey; Liber C, 356, Bergen Co. Deeds. May 30, 1764, he executed a power of attorney to his brothers William and Andrew, authorizing them to sell his stock of furs, skins and feathers, in Albany County, valued at 600 pounds, and his real estate in Bergen County, (Liber C, 358, Bergen Co. Deeds). Uriah having died about 1764, his son Anthony, June 1, 1774, conveyed his interest in the real estate to Stephen Case, lawyer of New Marlborough, N. Y. In 1754 Uriah was a constable in South Precinct, Dutchess Co., N. Y. May 4, 1765, letters of administration were issued to Andrew Hill, farmer of Westchester, upon estate of his brother Uriah, late of said county, deceased, (N. Y. Sur. office).

Y., where he resided until 1790, when he removed to Marbletown, Ulster County, N. Y., and from there to Shokan, Ulster County, N. Y., where both he and his wife died and are buried in Reformed Dutch church yard.

August 15, 1775, he signed the Revolutionary Association pledge in Dutchess County. October 17, 1775, he was commissioned as captain in the Second Regiment, Dutchess County Militia, Rombout Precinct. In 1777 he was appointed as Major of the Levies, Dutchess County, N. Y. In 1778 he was commissioned as Major in the Dutchess County Militia, Second Regiment. In 1784 he was appointed as Major No. 1, Dutchess County Militia. It appears by New York in Revolution, Supplement, 1777, that he furnished one or more soldiers at his own expense, for which honorable mention is given him. He was a freeholder in both Dutchess and Ulster Counties. May 5, 1786, he purchased of Daniel Graham, Commissioner of Forfeitures, 385 acres in Philipse Precinct, Lot 3, Philipse Patent, Dutchess County. September 2, 1799, describing himself as of Marbletown, Ulster County, he conveyed the 385 acres to his son Andrew Hill, Jr., of Marbletown. His name appears upon the list of members of the Reformed Dutch Church at Shokan. According to a tradition in the family, his wife was Catherine Horton, of Westchester County. After his appointment as Major, he was generally known as Major Hill.

21. Anthony Hill<sup>3</sup>, son of Uriah Hill<sup>2</sup>, removed to Fredericksburgh Precinct, Dutchess County, N. Y. In the Muster Roll of Captain Benjamin, Westchester Militia, under date of June 20, 1762, is the name of "Anthony Hill, aged 17; born in Dutchess Co." His name appears among those who signed the Revolutionary Pledge in Dutchess County in 1775. He was a member of Colonel Jacobus Swartout's regiment of Dutchess County Minute Men, and was with the regiment at Kings Bridge. He came home on a furlough, and when returning to join his regiment he was met by Lieutenant Edmund Palmer of Yorktown (who was subsequently executed as a spy by General Putnam, at Peekskill, August 5, 1777), and was induced by him to go with him to Cowneck, Long Island, and enlist in the British service. With Manuel Littleback he was sent to Dutchess County to enlist men for the British. When near Tarrytown he and Littleback were arrested by Lieutenant Gabriel Requa; the enlisting papers were found with him; he was taken to Peekskill, tried by court martial, Col. Philip Van Cortlandt presiding, and found guilty. May 8, 1777, the Provincial Convention of the State, then in session at Fishkill, "Resolved, that the President do issue a pardon to the said Anthony Hill." In a list of taxpayers in Poughkeepsie Precinct, Dutchess County, 1771, the name of Anthony Hill appears.

September 21, 1780, he was appointed Quartermaster in the Second Regiment, Rombout Precinct, Dutchess County Militia, Colonel Abram Brinckerhoff. He removed from Fishkill to Marbletown, Ulster County, in 1790. January 27, 1790, Rev. Silas Constant preached at his house in Dutchess County. January 23, 1801, he conveyed to Andrew Hill, Uriah Hill and Thomas Swartout and others, elders and deacons of the Reformed Dutch Church, Marbletown, "for the use of the said congregation to erect a meeting house and a church yard, all that parcel of land situate on the west side of the public road between the grist mill of Major Andrew and the said Uriah Hill's dwelling house, at a place called Ashocan in Marbletown, containing four-tenths of an acre." (Ulster Co. Deeds, 117-422.) In the census of U. S. Pensioners, made in 1840, he was described as "Uriah Hill, aged 84, living in the town of Olive, Ulster Co., N. Y." He married three times, (1), Mary Swartout of Dutchess Co.; (2), September 30, 1803, Catherine Davis, widow of Elizur Crispell, of

Solomon Hill and Descendants.

1. Solomon Hill, M. P. P.,<sup>3</sup> son of William<sup>2</sup> and Bethia (Smith) Hill, born August 30, 1756, at Red Mills, Dutchess (now Mahopac Falls, Putnam) County, N. Y.; died at Smithville, Lincoln County, District of Niagara, Canada, Aug. 30, 1807 (p. 9). During the war of the Revolution he was loyal to the British government and removed from Red Mills to Coeymans, Albany County, N. Y., where in December, 1783, he married Bethiah, daughter of Richard and Mary (Smith) Griffin, and granddaughter of Abraham and Margaret Smith of Philips Precinct, Dutchess County, N. Y. In 1795 he removed to Smithville, Canada, where his father-in-law had previously removed and settled. For his loyalty to Great Britain a large tract of land was granted to him by the British government. Upon his removal to Canada he took an active interest in public affairs, received a commission in the local militia, and in 1803 was elected a member of the Provincial Parliament, which office he held to the time of his death. He was a man of high character, exemplary habits, deeply religious, of unusual ability, and a very able public speaker. After the death of his father he made a short visit to Red Mills and disposed of the real property devised to him by his father, to his brothers, Abraham and Cornelius Hill.

THE DEAN FAMILY.

Richard Dean,<sup>1</sup> on July 20, 1775, was mustered into the American service at Goshen, Orange County, N. Y., as a private in Captain Daniel Denton's company, Colonel James Clinton's Third Regiment of Continentals. In muster roll on file at Capitol at Albany, he is described as a cordwainer, five feet four inches in height, hair black, eyes gray. (Archives, State of New York, in Revolution, Vol. I, p. 144.) According to family tradition he was killed, while in the service, at the storming of Stony Point, July 16, 1779. After his death, his widow, Susan (Ward) Dean, married ——— Crawford, blacksmith, who lived at or near what is now known as Oregon, Putnam Valley, Putnam County, N. Y. Richard Dean and Susan Ward had but one child, Richard,<sup>2</sup> who was born September 10, 1771, and died at Red Mills, Putnam County, N. Y., May 23, 1859. He was buried in the Presbyterian churchyard at Red Mills (now called Mahopac Falls), and a stone marks his grave. He was active in military affairs. March 24, 1803, he was appointed ensign in the Dutchess County Militia; February 2, 1810, he succeeded John Hyatt as lieutenant and served in that position in the War of 1812 with England. His occupation was that of a blacksmith and farmer. August 27, 1794, he was married by Rev. Nathan Cole, to Alethea, daughter of Smith and Martha (Brewer) Austin, of Red Mills. She was born January 13, 1777, and died at Red Mills, June 24, 1876, within a few months of her hundredth birthday.

PINCKNEY FAMILY.

1. Philip Pinckney<sup>1</sup> was a lineal descendant of the Pinckneys of Tattersat, Pinckney Manor, Norfolk County, England, whose ancestor came into that country at the time of William the Conqueror. As early as 1649, Philip Pinckney was in Fairfield, Connecticut. June 24, 1664, Thomas Pell granted to Philip Pinckney and James Eustis, for themselves and their associates, land on Hutchinson River, Westchester County, N. Y. March 9, 1664, the sale was confirmed by Governor Nichols unto Philip Pinckney, James Eustis and William Hayden, as patentees for and in behalf of themselves and their associates. The settlement became known as Eastchester and is now known as the City of Mt. Vernon, Westchester County, N. Y. The ten patentees were Philip Pinckney, William Hayden, James Eustis, John Hoitte, Richard Shute, David Osburn, Samuel Drake, James Embury, John Jackson and Moses Hoitte. Philip Pinckney died in 1687. His will dated January 9, 1688-9, proved February 14, 1688-9, recorded March 16, 1688-9, Westchester County Register's Office, mentions sons Thomas, John and William, unmarried daughters Elizabeth, Jean, Ann and Deborah, and "married daughters," not naming them. Philip spelled his name with a c and for that reason it will be spelled in that way in this genealogy.

Among the children of Philip Pinckney were:

2. Thomas,<sup>2</sup> born 1662; died 1732, as appears by tombstone in Eastchester churchyard.
3. William.<sup>2</sup>
